FAST TIME AT SARATOGA

TIPTOE RUNS SIX FURLONGS IN 1:12 1-5 TO WIN THE HANDICAP.

Heaslip Covers the Mile in 1:38 3-5-Rainey Broth ers Win a Big Wager-Stewards Question Aeronaut's Race-Austin Is Injured.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 17 .- Inferno, the Cana dian champion, scored a hollow victory in the handi-cap at one mile and a quarter today. He was never extended to beat Yorkshire Lad, Little Scout, Von Tromp and others, coenceding big weight all around. This was the real feature of the program, notwith standing that it provided a much more valuable stake fixture in the Troy Selling Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, in which Loring, second choice in the betting, skillfully and alertly ridden by Finn, won a fast race in a hard drive. Many big wagers were lost on Miller's mount, Monfort. This colt's erratic disposition was chiefly responsible for his defeat.

Mr. Belmont was the happiest man at the track when Tiptoe showed her heels to a lot of sprinters in the curtain raiser at six furlongs, done in the very fast time of 1:12. Aeronaut was the favorite, but ran poorly in Perrine's hands. The stewards had the rider before them and interrogated him. The race will be investigated and it looks bad for the accused jockey.

Austin, the western jockey, riding Braden in the fifth race, was thrown when the latter fell and was badly injured. The unfortunate rider was taken to the Saratoga Hospital where it was found that he had sustained a compound fracture of the right arm and several severe bruises about the head. He

P. J., and R. A. Rainey had a heavy wager on their crack colt Heaslip in this race. The average price obtained for their commission was 13 to 20 price obtained for their commission and escaped Heaslip was entered to be sold for $500 and escaped a boost. The time 1:38%, was the fastest of the meeting and by alleged selling platers was going Adolph B. Spreckels, of California, and W. P. secretary and general manager of the On tario Jockey Club were visitors at the course today.

HORACE E. PULLS UP LAME AFTER WORKOUT.

Is Out of Training-Jack Atkin and Oiseau Sick Water Pearl Has Recovered.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 17.-Jack Atkin, Barney Schreiber's Futurity candidate, has been temporarily thrown out of training. The trouble has been diag-nosed as blood poisoning in a mild form. The left fore ankle is considerably swollen, due, it is thought, to a sting from some pois ing from some poisonous insect. It is suffi-owever, to prevent his starting in the big Coney Island feature ness, caused by gravel having worked its way up into his right forefoot. After his work this morning Rainey's crack two-year-old pulled up so sore that he could hardly put his foot to the ground. The published reports that Water Pearl had broken down are not true. ### LA LONDE ESTABLISHES NEW TRACK RECORD.

Runs Seven Furlongs in 1:25 1-5 at Fort Erie Royal a Real Good Thing.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 17.—Ballotta, the Keene castoff, was the only winning favorite at Fort Eric oday. The best race of the day, however, was the fourth. Three out of the seven starters were well supported, Martin Doyle being the favorite and La Londe the second choice. La Gloria jumped into the lead after considerable delay, caused by the bad acting of La Londe and Garrett Wilson. La Gloria set a terrific pace and went into the stretch with what appeared a winning lead. La Londe admirably ridden by Wishard, began to close in on the flying leader and entering the last sixteenth was on ever terms with La Gloria where the pair fought it out to the wire with La Londe getting the verdict by

The bookmakers here had practically clean sheets on Port Royal's victory in the closing race, but it is said tonight that his connections scored a tremendous coup in poolrooms and handbooks throughout the country.

mendous coup in poolrooms and handbooks through out the country.

Woodcock, the bay gelding, by Pillarist—Plover, was sold in the paddock this afternoon to dissolve the partnership of Duff & Dean, the latter member of the firm purchasing him for $225.

J. B. Dunn bought of J. H. Baker this morning at private sale the three-year-old Oratorian, paying $1,100 for him.

John Burrows sold to M. Burns the bay mare Selected. She will be shipped to Pennsylvania and raced in the "bushes."

RAIN AND MUD AT THE KENTUCKY TRACK

dor, Odds-on Favorite, Wins Steeplechase-Hubbard's Poor Race Due to Injury.

Cincinnati, O., August 17.—Rain, which began alling about noon and continued through the falling about noon and continued through the afternoon, made the Latonia track muddy today and withdrawals were numerous. The much maligned jumpers somewhat redeemed themselves when Suba-dor, heavily backed at odds-on, led his company by a big margin throughout and won as his rider pleased by eight lengths. Some ring tactics were attempted in the betting. An early effort was made to draw attention to Weird. The handicappers and smart speculators would have none of Weird and bet their money as confidently on Subador, because of his excellent mud running, as they would have done on a flat race. Mr. Corrigan's green jumper Baveno performed poorly. He seemed to get tangled up in the going and after going the first half mile of the journey he dropped entirely out of it, all though he fenced in good style.

The hottest betting of the afternoon was on Foo.

The hottest betting of the afternoon was on Fon-oluca and Hubbard in the fifth race. Hubbard ran a poor race. It was accounted for in the statement

The start in the sixth race was bad. Potter, Frank Bill and Optional were all that got away, the others being practically left at the post.

Nicol returned after a day's rest and rode two winners out of five mounts.

E. R. THOMAS BUYS ALEX SHIELDS' STABLE.

Reported to Have Paid $100,000 for the Lot-Shields Will Train Them.

N. Y., August 17.-E. R. Thomas plunged in thoroughbred stock today. He bought Alex Shields' stable of racers outright, paying, it is said, approximately $100,000 for the string, which includes Go Between, Halifax, Diamond and others. Go Between will carry Mr. Thomas' colors—pearl jacket and red cap—in the Great Republic Stakes tomorrow. Willie Shields has been engaged as tomorrow. Willie Shields has been engaged as trainer at a big salary and a percentage of the stables' winnings. Alexander Shields will take a long vacation, spending the next twelve months in Europe. John Shields will accompany him.

PROGRAM FOR HAMILTON FALL MEETING.

Secretary A. R. Loudon, of the Hamilton Jockey Club, has issued the program book for the meeting of eight days—September 25 to October 3. The purses range from $300 to $600. There will be six races each day except on Saturday, September 29, when there will be an extra race for horses owned and ridden by members of the Hamilton Riding Club and Toronto Hunt Club.

SIR LYNNEWOOD IS LAME.

Sir Lynnewood, the favorite, beaten out in the closing race at Saratoga Wednesday, by Brookdale Nymph, pulled up all right, but later, after he had been cooled out, was so lame he hardly could walk. "This was the result of a bad kick while at the post," says the New York Sun. "Warning, 'Father Bill' Daly's starter, was the offender."

TWO TRAINERS IN TROUBLE AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., August 17 .- John McCullough and Frank Hart were expelled from the Latonia track and their badges taken up. It is charged that they had been supplying early morning information as to scratches to out of town poolro Both have trainers' licenses and these will likely be revoked.

Went to post at 3:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Mary Custif was outrun for the first quarter and, being forced back, had to work her way up on the outside, closed up with a ruph in the last furloug and, catching the leaders in the last fifty yards, outgamed Crip in the final drive. Crip worked his way up on the inside on the far turn and fought it out gamely with Alegrall through the last furlong. The latter began quickly, sprinted to the front and set a fast pace for a hal mile, but the effort told on her at the end and she tired under punishment. Miss Martha closed a big early gap and is one worth remembering. Moonvine ran well and finished close up. Reside was always outpaced Scratched—64224 My Bessie, 94; 64226 Chandler, 39.

Formead was crowded back on the first turn, but weaved his way through while rounding the turn out of the backstretch, set a fast pace and raced Crowshade into defeat, opened a winning lead on the far turn and was well in hand through the last furlong. Gilfain moved up fast on the outside on the turn into the bome-stretch, but swerved across to the inside in the stretch run and cut off Exclamation and was disqualified and second place given to Exclamation. The latter ran in much improved form under lighter weight than he carried in his previous efferts, was in a contending position all the way and was coming fast when cut off. Suzanne Rocamora ran a dull race. Gilpin finished fast.

Bill Phillips, in the sixth Saratoga, may run on of his good races today and pay good odds.

THE SUPERIOR SPRINTERS OF THIS YEAR.

When a horse runs three-quarters of a mile in 1:13 it at once takes rank as an excellent sprinter, and when one achieves a faster performance, it is and when one achieves a faster performance, it is rightfully assigned a place among the topnotchers. When a few years back Dick Welles himself hung up a record of 1:11½ at Washington Park, the feat caused a sensation in turf circles. It was something without precedent then, Yet, up-to date this year, 1:13 has been beaten thirty-one times, and the Dick Welles record has twice been equalled. This has not evoked any great amount of comment, but is quietly accepted as satisfactory evidence that the horses of today are as fast, at least, as the fastest of years passed away.

Diamond, always notably a fast horse, but curs Diamond, always notably a fast horse, but cursed with a vile temper, felt on good terms with bimself at Toronto one day last spring, May 24, took the lead at once and setting the pace throughout, ran six furlougs in 1:11½ and defeated such fast ones as Dishabile, Martin Doyle, La Pucelle and three others. This performance was equalled at Fort Prize last Thursday, by the speedy Hunyar three. Frie last Thursday, by the speedy Himyar three-year-old Charlie Eastman, in a desperate finish in which he was first by a half length with Hannibal Bey, Tickle and Gold Enamel behind him and only beads apart. Thus to Canada belongs the credit of the two fastest three-quarters of the year to and, oddly enough, all four are fillies. The first to score was Brookdale Nymph, at Sheepshead Bay, June 21. Then at Scattle, July 21, Ruby, a castoff June 21. Then at Seattle, July 21, Ruby, a castoff from the stable of W. B. Jennings, went in 1:12 with 109 pounds up, and to show it was no fluke, ran in 1:121 a week later, carrying 118 pounds. At Brighton Beach, July 26. Comedienne achieved her record of 1:12, and at Saratoga, Sanford's speedy filly Ravena, traveled in the same time.

Aeronaut has beaten 1:13 three times and it is worth notice that the slowest of his three races was with the least weight up. Twice he ran in vas with the least weight up. Twice he ran in: 12?, once with 120 pounds and once with 130 pounds in the saddle, while he only had up 108 when he ran in 1:122. However, this race took place early in May, while the other two were later on when he was better seasoned. The crack miler Kiamesha, has two races to her credit in 1:122 and 1:122. Ruby has two as detailed and Mr. Belmont's fine young mare Tiptoe, has two, one in 1:12½, carrying 120 pounds, and another in 1212½, under 116 pounds. No other horse has so far scored better than 1:13 more than once. Three two-year-olds—Blondy, Salvidere and J. C. Core, are in the distinguished list that follows. It gives the names of the horses, dates of performances, ages, weights carried and time scored:

TRAINERS ARE LENIENT WITH TURF STARS

Taking the defeat of Oisean as his text, the New York Sun's Saratoga correspondent gives his readers this timely sermon on the disappointments of the season growing out of the failure of trainers to have their stars in proper condition before asking hard questions of them:

"The defeat of Oisean adds one more to the list of disappointments that have come from the equine stars since the meeting opened. For days back we had heard that this colt would be ready for the fray at the first asking, and when it was found he was in with a very ordinary lot it looked as if the purse was at his mercy, but after flattering his backers for about half the journey, there was a challenge from an outsider. Cary, and defeat at the end. Without going into details it must be said that the colt did not run within pounds of what was expected of him, in fact, the one that beat him has never been anything better than a selling plater and only the other day was beaten off by a very ordinary lot.

"When Jack Martin, who rode Oiseau, walked off to the paddock after the race he met 'Diamond Jim' Brady, the owner, and all that he said was, 'It was too bad.' This tells the tale in more ways than one. It is a pity that a public favorite such as this colt has always been, should be defeated by one of the callibre of Cary, and yet it is getting to be the regular thing to find high class horses beaten in the first attempt.

"The regular excuse is that they are short and that they will alter on atone, for these disappointments, but these excuses do not fill the bill. In the old days a frainer of a star took good pains to setuated the hour, and what is more, they were ready. Some of our trainers today have held to the old deep a farmer of a star took good pains to setuate the charge went to the post for his initial race trained to the hour, and what is more, they were ready. Some of our trainers today have held to the old deep and the charges without racing or they are not particular about their fate in these early, taces.

"Mat Allen, who can be his best Tuesday afternoon and his defeat made the disappointment greater. Some few were inclined to put the blame on the colt alone, that is, to say that he was not the horse that he showed in his races last fall, but there is nothing to condemn him on in that race other than lack of condition. He will make good barring accidents. But had he come out of his long retirement fit and well, the pride of his admiters would have been enhanced and the racing world generally better pleased. Of course, some complain for financial reasons, but with the majority it is sentiment alone that prompts the wish that these topnotehers could be sent to the post fit to run their best races or at least be give a performance that their class would justify one in looking for.

"Mr. Brady felt the defeat of his colt as keenly as any one, and there is no question that he expected to see him win. The same can be said of trainer Allen, but the fact remains that he did not, and excuses must be offered. It is a common thing for trainers these days to baby their best horses, that is, they do not ask of them the hard preparations that they do of the lesser lights in their string. Perhaps if they would reverse tactics, that is, give the selling platers the easy times and the stars the hard ones, results might be more gratifying. This meeting has already furnished more shattered hopes than any of the several that have been held this year, and for this reason one hears more complaints than usual."

MINNIE ADAMS IS WELL ENGAGED.

Minnie Adams and Nifo are the only two horses in the stable of Fred Cook that have been entered in stakes to be decided at the Sheepshead Bay meeting which opeas September 1. They are both in the Twin City Handicap, the Autumn Handicaps (Fall. Ocean and Omnium), the Flying, the Dolphin and the Reapers, and Minnie Adams has also been named for the Turf and the September. In dispatches from New York, Cook is quoted as having said that he would start in the Futurity a two-year-old which he considers the superior of George C. Bennett, the good two-year-old of last year, which he lost by death. If this statement is correct, Cook must have purchased a Faturity eligible quietly, for his name does not appear among the owners of Catendar.

LOOKING FOR EASY JOBS.

"John Hachmeister's troubles have begun," says a Louisville dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer.
"The manager of Douglas Park Jockey Club has put a '23' sign on the door of his office. 'No Help Wanted' greeted the increasing army of applicants for positions. His callers asked for everything, from Judge to gatekeeper, He says that no less than 100 men asked to be given places as officers. As Pinkertons will have control of this feature Manager Hachmeister engaged a limited number of other employes, and then displayed the warning to late comers."

The private stables and paddocks of Charles Reed at Saratoga, were to have been sold at auction Wednesday, but when offered no bid was forth-coming. The place is an extensive one and fitted up extravagantly and would make an ideal spot to summer horses, but it looks as if there would be considerable difficulty in getting any thing like a fair price for it.

MAINTENON SCORES AGAIN.

William K. Vanderbilt's Maintenen wen the William the Conqueror Stakes at Deauville, France, Thursday.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John and Frank Ireland, who are coming back to the turf after an absence of about ten years, have been operating in the Beaumont oil fields.

J. S. Stoll, owner of the Meadows Stud at Lexing-ton, Ky., was also a buyer at the Saratoga yearling sales. He showed his faith in his stallion Frank-fort, the brother to Hamburg, by purchasing a number of filles by him, evidently for breeding purposes.

M. L. Hayman is considered to have secured a bargain when he paid $2,000 for the filly, by Plaudit —Skadi, at the Saratoga yearling sales. This is a half sister to Skifful, which won the United States Hotel Stakes for C. R. Ellison four years ago, and which broke down in a race at Harlem in 1904. Hayman had several offers of $2,500 for the filly before she had been in his possession an hour, but all were refused.

The Hopeful, like the Great Republic, is one of the series of splendid stakes devised under the possession of the Saratoga track. Necessarily its history is confined to a few years. As the figures it is a very rich event and naturally one ardently coyeted by the possessors of good two-year-olds, was its first winner and, as a sequel, captured the Great Republic the next year. The history of the is as follows:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE GREAT REPUBLIC.

The Great Republic was instituted with the declared intention of making it the most valuable stake race of the American turf for three-year-olds and over. It was made of the guaranteed gross value of $50,000, but the death of Mr. Whitney brought about changes in the governing policy of the Saratoga track and the stake was changed to the added money system, with an endowment of $10,000. Even at its reduced value it is still one of the chief events of the Saratoga meeting. Here is the record of the big race to date:

Year. First. Age. Jockeys. Wt. Second. Age. Wt. Third. Age. Wt. Val. Time. 1904 Delhi (3) ... Odom ... 119 Mercury (3) ... 98 The Picket (4).126 $41,465 2:05$ 1905 Sysonby (3) ... Nicol. 119 Oiseau (3) ... 116 Broomstick (4).126 41,465 2:07

Went to post at 2:26. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second driving; third the same. Tiptoe worked quickly to the front from far back and, setting a terrific pace for three furlongs, drew out in the stretch and won as her rider pleased. Shot Gun was skillfully held in reserve during the early running and, made a good impression, in the closing sprint, running quite to his best, form. Firebrand raced strenuously with the winner for three furlongs and then tired, but was skillfully nursed home to save third place. Pythia, on the inside, tried waiting tacties with disastrons results, was shut off on the last turn and finished fast, but boring out. Aeronaut was crowded out at the start and lost a half dozen lengths, then trailed throughout, looming up momentarily in the stretch, but again dropped back. Scratched—64135 Horace E., 95; 64173 Lord of the Forest, 97.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ben Holladay—Himyance (trained by J. W. Hall).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Free Booter ran as if much the best, was restrained throughout, wore down Lady Henrietta in the stretch and won hard held. The latter showed the most early speed and a liking for the going and held on well in the final drive. Granada, poorly handled and knocked back soon after the start, finished fast aftee a wide turn into the stretch and should have been second. Nine ran a good race, but was allowed to swerve badly in the stretch—64141 Alma Dufour, 107.

Overweights—Free Booter, 2½ pounds; Nine, 2; Prosador, 1.

Winner—B. g, by Florist—Mary Louise (trained by C. Maulding).

Went to post at 3:49. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same Subador, well meant today, never left the result in doubt, assumed a long lead at once and won all the way with ridiculous ease. Dalesman ran a good race and was not equal to beating the winner, but would have been closer up but for stumbling at the last obstacle. Weird lacked speed in the first part of the race, but gradually wore down Ohio King and was an easing up third. Ohio King tired badly after reach ling the stretch. Baveno was never a serious contender.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same.

Fonsoluca ran forwardly from the start, wore down Stroud under a hard drive and won going away.

Stroud set the pace fast to the stretch and hung on gamely in the final drive. Piller came from a long way back and finished going fast. Plautus was a close contender most of the way and, better bandled, would have been third. Hubbard ran a bad race and can do much better. Imboden had scart chance with an incompetent ride, Walsh almost falling off several times.

Amberita ran to her best form and, aided by a good ride, came away fast after wearing down Early Hours. Barkelmore had a rough trip for the first half and tired in the final drive, but was best of the others. Lady Charade ran a good race and would have been a smart factor with better handling. Poetman showed good form, but was allowed to swerre all over the track in the stretch and can do much better.

Suite 84-85, 121 LaSalle Street, Chicago, Ill.

ONE HORSE A DAY FROM LATONIA.

When one of my long shots loses or is scratched I always make good an extra day . . . . . . .

SATURDAY

a long shot will be cut loose on which a tremendous killing will be made and my one best bet clients alone will have the word. I have had this one up my sleeve for a long time and I know that they have been saving him up for this one killing. Those in control think he can't possibly lose, bar accident, and everything considered, this one looks like money from home. All clients know when I make a statement this strong that I will land the long green again for them just like I did last Saturday with Leo Bright, which won at 11 to 1.
